

Park Lane and Carney Avenue Reconstruction Project

Crews at work on Carney Avenue.

A view of the street at the project's completion.

Another view of Park Lane and Carney Avenue.

Existing brick was reused as part of the project.

The goal of the Park Lane and Carney Avenue reconstruction project included reusing existing brick while improving storm drainage and aging infrastructure. The overall project provided needed neighborhood improvements while reducing maintenance costs.