

Bur Oak

(Quercus macocarpa)

This 43-inch tree gives back approximately

$399

$364/year in overall benefits if located in a residential area.

If this tree is cared for and grows to 48 inches, it could provide up to $337 in annual benefits.

Overall annual benefits/year include:

Energy savings

May reduce energy bills by 469 kilowatt hours.

Stormwater

Intercepts 7,239 gallons of rainwater.

Health benefits

Cleans the air people breathe by reducing carbon dioxide by 1,160 lbs.

Property values

Raises property values by $17 this year.

Use a smartphone or tablet to scan the QR code to find out how trees benefit citizens.

Note: QR code readers can be downloaded on the App Store or Google Play.

Every tree counts.

Call 311 or 507-387-8600 for more information.

mankatomn.gov

